

THE HIGHLIGHTS OF YESTERDAY'S EVENTS ON FAMOUS TRACKS.

He Brings Home Ethics, Mackey Dwyer, Hindred and Smart Set.

THIRD ON HIS OTHER MOUNTS

Blue Girl Easily Wins the Gazelle Stakes for Mr. Whitney.

BALLYHOO BEY AGAIN LOSES

Hanover Queen and Par Excellence Cannot Make the Sir Dixon Filly Gallop—Artvis Beats Onatas a Head in a Hard Drive—Latter Should Have Won

NEW YORK, June 4.—Winfield Scott O'Connor was the bright particular star at Gravesend today. The noted jockey rode four winners in six mounts, and landed third with each of the other two. Four favorites were successful, three of them, Ethics, Mackey Dwyer, and Hindred, being handled by O'Connor in eleven of his mounts.

The jockey's other victory was on Smart Set, in the opening event. The racing was of more than ordinary interest, several finishes raising the crowd to its feet in an uproar. Blue Girl took the Gazelle stakes for three-year-olds in a romp, but the much talked of Ballyhoo Bey was again a bitter disappointment.

On his performance it would seem as if the 1900 Futurity winner had seen his best days, and it is likely he will soon be sent to the stud to remain permanently.

Blue Girl Wins the Gazelle.

Blue Girl, with 124 pounds on her back, had the Gazelle stakes so completely at her mercy that the layers quoted only 1 to 5 against the handsome daughter of Sir Dixon. The big bettors put their money down at that with all the confidence in the world. They considered it only a question of getting in line to cash. Blue Girl was asked to beat Hanover Queen, who was at 6 to 1, and Par Excellence, whose closing price was 12 to 1 and even. To both of her rivals, Blue Girl conceded eleven pounds.

When they were sent away, Burns took a tight hold on Mr. Whitney's filly, allowing the others to make the pace, with Hanover Queen in front. In the middle of the backstretch Blue Girl moved up rapidly, raised on her heels, and with the Morris filly for a furlong, and then drew away easily. In the home stretch Burns eased Blue Girl, and she was galloping by two lengths. In a sharp drive, Par Excellence captured the place by a neck.

Ballyhoo Bey Last.

Ballyhoo Bey took up 124 pounds in a high weight handicap at about six furlongs, which opened the day's sport, carried away by sentiment and the belief that the famous son of Kingston was about due, piling the money on him at 5 to 10. Those who could not figure on Whitney's colt on form to be a factor in any way went either to Smart Set, who was backed down to four, or Eddie Busch, played from four to 18 to 5. Gail, the only other starter, was well placed at seven.

The start was good, but Ballyhoo Bey was immediately taken back by Turner. Eddie Busch and Gail meanwhile went off in front at a good clip, with O'Connor waiting patiently with Smart Set. Turner, after the first quarter, rode Ballyhoo Bey, and for a short period the colt displayed some of his old-time speed, but the pace was so fast that Mr. Whitney's colt was soon in trouble, and under the whip was unable to get out of last place.

Smart Set in a Drive.

In the run to the wire O'Connor put up a masterly finish on Smart Set, who won in a drive by half a length in 1:11.5. Eddie Busch beat Gail for the place by two lengths, Ballyhoo Bey being a length away, very tired.

O'Connor triumphed again in the second race, a selling event at a mile and a sixteenth. Ethics, his mount, was a favorite at 4 to 1. The other winners and their odds were: Mackey Dwyer, 10 to 1; Hindred, 10 to 1; and Jim Tully, who was also well placed at 7 to 2 and 4 to 1, respectively. Jim Tully made the running for a mile, with Five Nations in game pursuit. O'Connor, who rode Ethics to perfection, let the colt down to the stretch, and riding him out with the whip, got the verdict by a neck. Jim Tully was second, three parts of a length before Catliness, who beat Five Nations a length.

Artvis by a Head.

The handicap for two-year-olds, at five furlongs, the first event of its kind to be run here this year, was the third on the card, and afforded a lively betting proposition. Onatas, with 118 pounds, was made favorite—7 to 5—and a ton of money was up on him. Whorler, who opened on equal terms with Onatas at two, went back to 7 to 2. Bensonhurst, with top weight, 125 pounds, went up to six, which was also the quotation against Artvis, whose impost was 124 pounds.

The start was straggling. Bensonhurst and Artvis getting several lengths the best of it. The former quickly gave way to Artvis, however, and as the race progressed Artvis opened up a gap of three lengths. Onatas, always a slow beginner, soon got down to real business, and passed all but Artvis. In the stretch both Bullman and Woods reported to the whip, Artvis firing rapidly while Onatas grew stronger with every stride. At the wire Artvis had the race by a head, Onatas being five lengths before Whorler. With an even break Onatas could not have lost.

The Summaries.

First race—For all ages: Highlight Handicap; about six furlongs. Smart Set (O'Connor), 4 to 1, won; Eddie Busch (Odum), 3 to 1, second; Gail (Landry), 5 to 1, third. Time, 1:17 1/5.

Ballyhoo Bey also ran. Scratched, Swifts, Roue.

Second race—For three-year-olds and Selections for Today at Gravesend.

First race—Charles W. Myer, Reformer, Femesole. Second race—Surmise, Hermit, The Regent. Third race—Mattie Lewis, Mamie Worth, Mamari. Fourth race—Decameron, Perion, Filon d'Or. Fifth race—Cincinnati, Baikal, Boutons. Sixth race—Alack, Bounteous, Essene.

Gravesend Entries.

GRAVESEND, L. I., June 4.—Entries for tomorrow's races:

First race—For three-year-olds; selling; about six furlongs. Essene, 100; Carrol D., 165; Ben Howard, 165; Cassville, 167; Golden Cottage, 164; Knappack, 165; Reformer, Femesole, 168; Conwell, 111; Lord Radnor, 101; Ravensburg, 164; Meistersinger, 111; Charles W. Myer, 116; Oclawaha, 95; Parisina, 99; Mac Anna, 105; Sweet Clover, 99; Schwalbe, 96.

Second race—For three-year-olds and upward; handicap; one and one-half miles. Monarka, 196; Watercure, 192; Decameron, 195; Hermit, 188; Sadie S., 91; The Regent, Surmise, 90; Colonel Bill, 85; Squire Quinne, 85.

Third race—The Clover Stakes; for fillies two furlongs. Gold Money, 115; Ada May, Miladi Love, 112; Love Kate, 115; Mamie Worth, Mary Lewis, Fair Lass, Wanneke, Duster, upward; one and one-sixteenth miles. (O'Connor), even, won; Catliness (Dun), 50 to 1, third. Time, 1:48 3/4.

Congar, The Referee, Five Nations, and Swampkins also ran. Scratched, Kingaine, Goldsby, Mosketto, and Linora.

Fourth race—Two-year-olds; handicap; five furlongs. Artvis (Bullman), 5 to 1, won; Onatas (Woods), 3 to 1, second; Whorler (O'Connor), 5 to 2, third. Time, 1:00 4/5.

Bensonhurst, Blue and Orange, Hackcrack, and Queen Bouda, also scratched. Lady Alberratt, Mackey Dwyer, and Bob McLean.

Fifth race—The Gazelle Stakes; for three-year-olds; one and one-sixteenth miles. Blue Girl (Burns), 1 to 6, won; Par Excellence (Woods), 8 to 1, second; Hanover Queen (O'Connor), 6 to 1, third. Time, 1:01 1/5.

Only three starters. Scratched, Blanche Herman.

Sixth race—For two-year-olds; selling; five furlongs. Mackey Dwyer (O'Connor), 3 to 2, won; Col. Tyler (Michals), 10 to 1, second; Makela (Cochran), 4 to 1, third. Time, 1:01 1/5.

Dark Planet, Gillie, Blue Delft, Mount Hope, Ora Viva, Earl of Norfolk, Ona, Melbourne Belle, Plunger, Squid, Julia Arthur, and Onyx also ran.

Seventh race—For three-year-old maidens; one mile and seventy yards. Hindred (O'Connor), 2 to 1, won; Courtney (Bullman), 2 to 1, second; Goldsby (Parker), 10 to 1, third. Time, 1:02 1/5.

Obdis and Ends, Silver Trinket, Furlough H., Lord Hodge, Edgar Poe, Fire Escape, Bar Le Duc, Condiment, Sun Shower, and Bella also ran. Scratched, Jim Tully and Pink Rose.

DERBY CANDIDATE WINS.

John E. Drake's Wyeth Beats Ordinary Horses at Harlem Track.

CHICAGO, June 4.—John E. Drake's American Derby candidate Wyeth, by Wadsworth, made his first appearance of the season in the second race at Harlem this afternoon and beat Marcos and Inspector Shea. Wyeth was favorite at even money. His performance makes him look good for the Derby, although he beat nothing much.

Pe Bradley's old gelding Farrell took the stepicade at 5 to 1. Two favorites won. Track heavy. Summaries:

First race—For two-year-olds; selling; four and one-half furlongs. Pluck (Mathews), 5 to 2, won; Farmer Jim (Cochran), 3 to 1, second; Topsoil (Brown), 20 to 1, third. Time, 0:58 3/5.

Second race—For three-year-olds; seven furlongs. Wyeth (Lyne), even, won; Marcos (Sullivan), 4 to 1, second; Inspector Shea (Oils), 3 to 1, third. Time, 1:24 2/5.

Third race—For four-year-olds and upward; stepicade; short course. Farrell (R. Taylor), 5 to 1, won; Dick (Lynch), 3 to 1, second; Dan (Cochran), 10 to 1, third. Time, 1:18 3/5.

Fourth race—For three-year-olds and upward; handicap; six furlongs. Stuyve (W. Waldo), 2 to 5, won; Hotter Boy (Glen), 10 to 1, second; Nelly (Nelly), 20 to 1, third. Time, 1:18 3/5.

Fifth race—For three-year-olds and upward; seven furlongs. Pirates' Queen (O'Hara), 7 to 1, won; Henry of Pransan (Davis), 3 to 2, second; The Morris (Waldo), 15 to 1, third. Time, 1:23 4/5.

Sixth race—For four-year-olds and upward; selling; one and one-fourth miles. Satin Coat (Dean), 4 to 1, won; Rascalas (Birknuth), 5 to 1, second; Dan (Cochran), 10 to 1, third. Time, 2:17.

TALENT IS SHOCKED.

Faraday, Jr., 20 to 1, Wins First Race at Latonia Track.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, June 4.—Faraday, Jr., a son of Faraday, shocked the talent in the first race at Latonia this afternoon by winning at 20 to 1. Flash of Lightning at 7 to 1, and Carrie Hope at 6, were among the other winners. Firing Line and St. Her were the victors' favorites. Track fast. Summaries:

First race—For three-year-olds and upward; selling; seven furlongs. Faraday, Jr. (Dray), 20 to 1, won; Russian (Minder), 8 to 1, second; Megs (Aker), 5 to 1, third. Time, 1:30.

Second race—For two-year-old fillies; selling; five furlongs. Flash of Lightning (Crabb), 7 to 1, won; Marchioness (Minder), 4 to 1, second; Lady Philura (Hicks), 3 to 1, third. Time, 1:06 1/4.

Third race—For maiden three-year-olds; six furlongs. Carrie Hope (Minder), 6 to 1, won; Cardone (Downing), 5 to 1, second; Birdwood (McQuerry), 20 to 1, third. Time, 1:15 1/5.

Fourth race—For three-year-olds and upward; selling; seven furlongs. Faraday, Jr. (Dray), 20 to 1, won; Rascalas (Birknuth), 5 to 1, second; Dan (Cochran), 10 to 1, third. Time, 2:17.

Faraday, Jr., 20 to 1, Wins First Race at Latonia Track.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, June 4.—Faraday, Jr., a son of Faraday, shocked the talent in the first race at Latonia this afternoon by winning at 20 to 1. Flash of Lightning at 7 to 1, and Carrie Hope at 6, were among the other winners. Firing Line and St. Her were the victors' favorites. Track fast. Summaries:

First race—For three-year-olds and upward; selling; seven furlongs. Faraday, Jr. (Dray), 20 to 1, won; Russian (Minder), 8 to 1, second; Megs (Aker), 5 to 1, third. Time, 1:30.

Second race—For two-year-old fillies; selling; five furlongs. Flash of Lightning (Crabb), 7 to 1, won; Marchioness (Minder), 4 to 1, second; Lady Philura (Hicks), 3 to 1, third. Time, 1:06 1/4.

Third race—For maiden three-year-olds; six furlongs. Carrie Hope (Minder), 6 to 1, won; Cardone (Downing), 5 to 1, second; Birdwood (McQuerry), 20 to 1, third. Time, 1:15 1/5.

Fourth race—For three-year-olds and upward; selling; seven furlongs. Faraday, Jr. (Dray), 20 to 1, won; Rascalas (Birknuth), 5 to 1, second; Dan (Cochran), 10 to 1, third. Time, 2:17.

Faraday, Jr., 20 to 1, Wins First Race at Latonia Track.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, June 4.—Faraday, Jr., a son of Faraday, shocked the talent in the first race at Latonia this afternoon by winning at 20 to 1. Flash of Lightning at 7 to 1, and Carrie Hope at 6, were among the other winners. Firing Line and St. Her were the victors' favorites. Track fast. Summaries:

First race—For three-year-olds and upward; selling; seven furlongs. Faraday, Jr. (Dray), 20 to 1, won; Russian (Minder), 8 to 1, second; Megs (Aker), 5 to 1, third. Time, 1:30.

Second race—For two-year-old fillies; selling; five furlongs. Flash of Lightning (Crabb), 7 to 1, won; Marchioness (Minder), 4 to 1, second; Lady Philura (Hicks), 3 to 1, third. Time, 1:06 1/4.

Third race—For maiden three-year-olds; six furlongs. Carrie Hope (Minder), 6 to 1, won; Cardone (Downing), 5 to 1, second; Birdwood (McQuerry), 20 to 1, third. Time, 1:15 1/5.

Fourth race—For three-year-olds and upward; selling; seven furlongs. Faraday, Jr. (Dray), 20 to 1, won; Rascalas (Birknuth), 5 to 1, second; Dan (Cochran), 10 to 1, third. Time, 2:17.

Faraday, Jr., 20 to 1, Wins First Race at Latonia Track.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, June 4.—Faraday, Jr., a son of Faraday, shocked the talent in the first race at Latonia this afternoon by winning at 20 to 1. Flash of Lightning at 7 to 1, and Carrie Hope at 6, were among the other winners. Firing Line and St. Her were the victors' favorites. Track fast. Summaries:

First race—For three-year-olds and upward; selling; seven furlongs. Faraday, Jr. (Dray), 20 to 1, won; Russian (Minder), 8 to 1, second; Megs (Aker), 5 to 1, third. Time, 1:30.

Second race—For two-year-old fillies; selling; five furlongs. Flash of Lightning (Crabb), 7 to 1, won; Marchioness (Minder), 4 to 1, second; Lady Philura (Hicks), 3 to 1, third. Time, 1:06 1/4.

WATERCOLOR GOES LAME IN TRIAL SPIN

Haggins' Crack Racer Reported in Bad Shape.

WAS SUBURBAN FAVORITE

Great Horse Will Not Be a Starter in Sheephead Bay's Big Race—Considered Best Horse in America—The Change in Betting.

NEW YORK, June 4.—Watercolor, favorite in the future books for the Suburban Handicap, to be run on June 11, has gone amiss and will not start in Sheephead's big race. On Sunday Watercolor worked a mile and a quarter in 2:12 and did the trial imprudently. Yesterday he was given another work-out and pulled up lame. The extent of his injuries is not known, but it is understood he is in bad shape. Watercolor was quoted at 5 to 1 in the future books on the Sheephead Bay race, and much money has been wagered upon him. He would undoubtedly have gone to the post a heavily played first choice.

Watercolor is the property of J. B. Haggins, the millionaire copper miner, who owned the world-renowned Suburban, and was considered by his owner as almost, if not quite, as good as the famous Prince Charlie horse who won the Suburban in 1899. Mr. Haggins thought his horse would surely win the Suburban and had played him heavily. Watercolor has been known as the picture horse, because of his fine looks, and was considered by many trainers as the best horse in America.

Watercolor is the property of J. B. Haggins, the millionaire copper miner, who owned the world-renowned Suburban, and was considered by his owner as almost, if not quite, as good as the famous Prince Charlie horse who won the Suburban in 1899. Mr. Haggins thought his horse would surely win the Suburban and had played him heavily. Watercolor has been known as the picture horse, because of his fine looks, and was considered by many trainers as the best horse in America.

Watercolor is the property of J. B. Haggins, the millionaire copper miner, who owned the world-renowned Suburban, and was considered by his owner as almost, if not quite, as good as the famous Prince Charlie horse who won the Suburban in 1899. Mr. Haggins thought his horse would surely win the Suburban and had played him heavily. Watercolor has been known as the picture horse, because of his fine looks, and was considered by many trainers as the best horse in America.

Watercolor is the property of J. B. Haggins, the millionaire copper miner, who owned the world-renowned Suburban, and was considered by his owner as almost, if not quite, as good as the famous Prince Charlie horse who won the Suburban in 1899. Mr. Haggins thought his horse would surely win the Suburban and had played him heavily. Watercolor has been known as the picture horse, because of his fine looks, and was considered by many trainers as the best horse in America.

Watercolor is the property of J. B. Haggins, the millionaire copper miner, who owned the world-renowned Suburban, and was considered by his owner as almost, if not quite, as good as the famous Prince Charlie horse who won the Suburban in 1899. Mr. Haggins thought his horse would surely win the Suburban and had played him heavily. Watercolor has been known as the picture horse, because of his fine looks, and was considered by many trainers as the best horse in America.

Watercolor is the property of J. B. Haggins, the millionaire copper miner, who owned the world-renowned Suburban, and was considered by his owner as almost, if not quite, as good as the famous Prince Charlie horse who won the Suburban in 1899. Mr. Haggins thought his horse would surely win the Suburban and had played him heavily. Watercolor has been known as the picture horse, because of his fine looks, and was considered by many trainers as the best horse in America.

Watercolor is the property of J. B. Haggins, the millionaire copper miner, who owned the world-renowned Suburban, and was considered by his owner as almost, if not quite, as good as the famous Prince Charlie horse who won the Suburban in 1899. Mr. Haggins thought his horse would surely win the Suburban and had played him heavily. Watercolor has been known as the picture horse, because of his fine looks, and was considered by many trainers as the best horse in America.

Watercolor is the property of J. B. Haggins, the millionaire copper miner, who owned the world-renowned Suburban, and was considered by his owner as almost, if not quite, as good as the famous Prince Charlie horse who won the Suburban in 1899. Mr. Haggins thought his horse would surely win the Suburban and had played him heavily. Watercolor has been known as the picture horse, because of his fine looks, and was considered by many trainers as the best horse in America.

Watercolor is the property of J. B. Haggins, the millionaire copper miner, who owned the world-renowned Suburban, and was considered by his owner as almost, if not quite, as good as the famous Prince Charlie horse who won the Suburban in 1899. Mr. Haggins thought his horse would surely win the Suburban and had played him heavily. Watercolor has been known as the picture horse, because of his fine looks, and was considered by many trainers as the best horse in America.

Watercolor is the property of J. B. Haggins, the millionaire copper miner, who owned the world-renowned Suburban, and was considered by his owner as almost, if not quite, as good as the famous Prince Charlie horse who won the Suburban in 1899. Mr. Haggins thought his horse would surely win the Suburban and had played him heavily. Watercolor has been known as the picture horse, because of his fine looks, and was considered by many trainers as the best horse in America.

Watercolor is the property of J. B. Haggins, the millionaire copper miner, who owned the world-renowned Suburban, and was considered by his owner as almost, if not quite, as good as the famous Prince Charlie horse who won the Suburban in 1899. Mr. Haggins thought his horse would surely win the Suburban and had played him heavily. Watercolor has been known as the picture horse, because of his fine looks, and was considered by many trainers as the best horse in America.

Watercolor is the property of J. B. Haggins, the millionaire copper miner, who owned the world-renowned Suburban, and was considered by his owner as almost, if not quite, as good as the famous Prince Charlie horse who won the Suburban in 1899. Mr. Haggins thought his horse would surely win the Suburban and had played him heavily. Watercolor has been known as the picture horse, because of his fine looks, and was considered by many trainers as the best horse in America.

Watercolor is the property of J. B. Haggins, the millionaire copper miner, who owned the world-renowned Suburban, and was considered by his owner as almost, if not quite, as good as the famous Prince Charlie horse who won the Suburban in 1899. Mr. Haggins thought his horse would surely win the Suburban and had played him heavily. Watercolor has been known as the picture horse, because of his fine looks, and was considered by many trainers as the best horse in America.

Watercolor is the property of J. B. Haggins, the millionaire copper miner, who owned the world-renowned Suburban, and was considered by his owner as almost, if not quite, as good as the famous Prince Charlie horse who won the Suburban in 1899. Mr. Haggins thought his horse would surely win the Suburban and had played him heavily. Watercolor has been known as the picture horse, because of his fine looks, and was considered by many trainers as the best horse in America.

Watercolor is the property of J. B. Haggins, the millionaire copper miner, who owned the world-renowned Suburban, and was considered by his owner as almost, if not quite, as good as the famous Prince Charlie horse who won the Suburban in 1899. Mr. Haggins thought his horse would surely win the Suburban and had played him heavily. Watercolor has been known as the picture horse, because of his fine looks, and was considered by many trainers as the best horse in America.

Watercolor is the property of J. B. Haggins, the millionaire copper miner, who owned the world-renowned Suburban, and was considered by his owner as almost, if not quite, as good as the famous Prince Charlie horse who won the Suburban in 1899. Mr. Haggins thought his horse would surely win the Suburban and had played him heavily. Watercolor has been known as the picture horse, because of his fine looks, and was considered by many trainers as the best horse in America.

Watercolor is the property of J. B. Haggins, the millionaire copper miner, who owned the world-renowned Suburban, and was considered by his owner as almost, if not quite, as good as the famous Prince Charlie horse who won the Suburban in 1899. Mr. Haggins thought his horse would surely win the Suburban and had played him heavily. Watercolor has been known as the picture horse, because of his fine looks, and was considered by many trainers as the best horse in America.

Watercolor is the property of J. B. Haggins, the millionaire copper miner, who owned the world-renowned Suburban, and was considered by his owner as almost, if not quite, as good as the famous Prince Charlie horse who won the Suburban in 1899. Mr. Haggins thought his horse would surely win the Suburban and had played him heavily. Watercolor has been known as the picture horse, because of his fine looks, and was considered by many trainers as the best horse in America.

Watercolor is the property of J. B. Haggins, the millionaire copper miner, who owned the world-renowned Suburban, and was considered by his owner as almost, if not quite, as good as the famous Prince Charlie horse who won the Suburban in 1899. Mr. Haggins thought his horse would surely win the Suburban and had played him heavily. Watercolor has been known as the picture horse, because of his fine looks, and was considered by many trainers as the best horse in America.

Watercolor is the property of J. B. Haggins, the millionaire copper miner, who owned the world-renowned Suburban, and was considered by his owner as almost, if not quite, as good as the famous Prince Charlie horse who won the Suburban in 1899. Mr. Haggins thought his horse would surely win the Suburban and had played him heavily. Watercolor has been known as the picture horse, because of his fine looks, and was considered by many trainers as the best horse in America.

Watercolor is the property of J. B. Haggins, the millionaire copper miner, who owned the world-renowned Suburban, and was considered by his owner as almost, if not quite, as good as the famous Prince Charlie horse who won the Suburban in 1899. Mr. Haggins thought his horse would surely win the Suburban and had played him heavily. Watercolor has been known as the picture horse, because of his fine looks, and was considered by many trainers as the best horse in America.

Watercolor is the property of J. B. Haggins, the millionaire copper miner, who owned the world-renowned Suburban, and was considered by his owner as almost, if not quite, as good as the famous Prince Charlie horse who won the Suburban in 1899. Mr. Haggins thought his horse would surely win the Suburban and had played him heavily. Watercolor has been known as the picture horse, because of his fine looks, and was considered by many trainers as the best horse in America.

Watercolor is the property of J. B. Haggins, the millionaire copper miner, who owned the world-renowned Suburban, and was considered by his owner as almost, if not quite, as good as the famous Prince Charlie horse who won the Suburban in 1899. Mr. Haggins thought his horse would surely win the Suburban and had played him heavily. Watercolor has been known as the picture horse, because of his fine looks, and was considered by many trainers as the best horse in America.

Watercolor is the property of J. B. Haggins, the millionaire copper miner, who owned the world-renowned Suburban, and was considered by his owner as almost, if not quite, as good as the famous Prince Charlie horse who won the Suburban in 1899. Mr. Haggins thought his horse would surely win the Suburban and had played him heavily. Watercolor has been known as the picture horse, because of his fine looks, and was considered by many trainers as the best horse in America.

Watercolor is the property of J. B. Haggins, the millionaire copper miner, who owned the world-renowned Suburban, and was considered by his owner as almost, if not quite, as good as the famous Prince Charlie horse who won the Suburban in 1899. Mr. Haggins thought his horse would surely win the Suburban and had played him heavily. Watercolor has been known as the picture horse, because of his fine looks, and was considered by many trainers as the best horse in America.

Watercolor is the property of J. B. Haggins, the millionaire copper miner, who owned the world-renowned Suburban, and was considered by his owner as almost, if not quite, as good as the famous Prince Charlie horse who won the Suburban in 1899. Mr. Haggins thought his horse would surely win the Suburban and had played him heavily. Watercolor has been known as the picture horse, because of his fine looks, and was considered by many trainers as the best horse in America.

Watercolor is the property of J. B. Haggins, the millionaire copper miner, who owned the world-renowned Suburban, and was considered by his owner as almost, if not quite, as good as the famous Prince Charlie horse who won the Suburban in 1899. Mr. Haggins thought his horse would surely win the Suburban and had played him heavily. Watercolor has been known as the picture horse, because of his fine looks, and was considered by many trainers as the best horse in America.

Watercolor is the property of J. B. Haggins, the millionaire copper miner, who owned the world-renowned Suburban, and was considered by his owner as almost, if not quite, as good as the famous Prince Charlie horse who won the Suburban in 1899. Mr. Haggins thought his horse would surely win the Suburban and had played him heavily. Watercolor has been known as the picture horse, because of his fine looks, and was considered by many trainers as the best horse in America.

Watercolor is the property of J. B. Haggins, the millionaire copper miner, who owned the world-renowned Suburban, and was considered by his owner as almost, if not quite, as good as the famous Prince Charlie horse who won the Suburban in 1899. Mr. Haggins thought his horse would surely win the Suburban and had played him heavily. Watercolor has been known as the picture horse, because of his fine looks, and was considered by many trainers as the best horse in America.

Watercolor is the property of J. B. Haggins, the millionaire copper miner, who owned the world-renowned Suburban, and was considered by his owner as almost, if not quite, as good as the famous Prince Charlie horse who won the Suburban in 1899. Mr. Haggins thought his horse would surely win the Suburban and had played him heavily. Watercolor has been known as the picture horse, because of his fine looks, and was considered by many trainers as the best horse in America.

Watercolor is the property of J. B. Haggins, the millionaire copper miner, who owned the world-renowned Suburban, and was considered by his owner as almost, if not quite, as good as the famous Prince Charlie horse who won the Suburban in 1899. Mr. Haggins thought his horse would surely win the Suburban and had played him heavily. Watercolor has been known as the picture horse, because of his fine looks, and was considered by many trainers as the best horse in America.

Watercolor is the property of J. B. Haggins, the millionaire copper miner, who owned the world-renowned Suburban, and was considered by his owner as almost, if not quite, as good as the famous Prince Charlie horse who won the Suburban in 1899. Mr. Haggins thought his horse would surely win the Suburban and had played him heavily. Watercolor has been known as the picture horse, because of his fine looks, and was considered by many trainers as the best horse in America.

Watercolor is the property of J. B. Haggins, the millionaire copper miner, who owned the world-renowned Suburban, and was considered by his owner as almost, if not quite, as good as the famous Prince Charlie horse who won the Suburban in 1899. Mr. Haggins thought his horse would surely win the Suburban and had played him heavily. Watercolor has been known as the picture horse, because of his fine looks, and was considered by many trainers as the best horse in America.

Watercolor is the property of J. B. Haggins, the millionaire copper miner, who owned the world-renowned Suburban, and was considered by his owner as almost, if not quite, as good as the famous Prince Charlie horse who won the Suburban in 1899. Mr. Haggins thought his horse would surely win the Suburban and had played him heavily. Watercolor has been known as the picture horse, because of his fine looks, and was considered by many trainers as the best horse in America.

Watercolor is the property of J. B. Haggins, the